

2020-2021 Academic Students of the Term

-Term 1

	Ross Gibson Ross shows a great passion for math and is able to combine his interest in math with computer science by writing Python code to check solutions. Shortly after joining Algebra 2, Ross chose to take on the additional challenge of opting into Honors. His interest in math goes beyond traditional curriculum with a self taught understanding of Fractals. I look forward to seeing what else you can accomplish here at Assabet. Good job Ross! ~Mr. Park
	Kielely Whynot My guiding principle in life is to be honest, genuine, thoughtful, and caring. Kielely from the minute I've met her has shown all these qualities and is a fantastic student in class. She works incredibly hard to get all her work done while taking time to assist others when needed. Kielely 100% deserves the title student of the month, Keep up the good work. -Mr. Stamm
	Lorraine Camargo Lorraine challenges herself on each art project and is always motivated to do well. She stays for the full remote learning period and works extremely hard. She is also friendly and enthusiastic about art class! - Ms. Gaide
	Aaron DeFaria Aaron is a great art student who clearly strives for excellence. He consistently has his camera showing during remote learning and works hard on each art project. Aaron is always participating and creating wonderful works of art. - Ms. Gaide
